Janis

At your convenience I'd like to talk to you about the Ballard arbitration award. As you can see the panel has deferred ruling on any specific sums due Murphy from Ballard.

We are putting together a plan to use this order to obtain funds from Ballard for both past costs and any future costs in the Montana litigation. We do not yet know a lot about their financial condition so are not sure how much we may collect, and are mindful to proceed carefully. I want to make sure that Murphy and Travelers coordinate any efforts regarding Ballard so as not to trip over and instead maximize any recovery from them.

Thanks
Mike

Ms. Schlerf:

Attached please find a recent order from the Murphy v. Ballard arbitration. As you will see, the Panel ruled that: (a) Plaintiffs' claims in Zimmerman and Lockman fall within Ballard's obligations to defend and indemnify Murphy under the Purchase and Sale Agreement; and (b) Ballard is in breach of its duty to defend Murphy, subject to Ballard's reservation of rights. Resolution of claims for the costs of Murphy's defense, however, are reserved for the final award.

Jeff
